Directions to Hyena Pan from Maun (3 hours)

Leave Maun towards Sherobe; go through Sherobe and onto the dirt, then through the buffalo fence and keep right at the fork indicating Moremi. Drive to Sankuyo village, and continue through the village towards Mababe. As you approach Mababe there is a detour (you might see water - avoid it!) - take the detour then rejoin the main dirt road and drive through Mababe village over the metal bridge before turning left towards Khwai. Keep on this main dirt road going past the turn off to Savuti National Park, and go past both Chobe cutlines (signposted) before turning right at a white pole, 4.8km past the signposted Seronga Road. Travel in a northerly direction along this road for 11 kilometres. Towards the end, the road winds right towards camp - a little further along take the first left into Hyena Pan Camp.

From Savuti to Hyena Pan

Go through the Mubabe Gate and drive straight towards the large dirt road. As you hit the "main" road, turn right towards Khwai and go past the Chobe cutline (signposted) before turning right at a White pole, 4.8km past the signposted Seronga Road. Travel in a northerly direction along this road for 11 kilometres. Towards the end, the road winds right towards camp - a little further along take the first left into Hyena Pan Camp. The camp is a 35-minute drive from the Khwai River, and approximately one hour from the North Gate in Moremi National Park.
