

GABY GRIEVESON

“There is nothing more exciting than seeing the look on my clients faces when I surprise them with an out-of-this-world experience. It's such a happy feeling for families to be together in the African bush, surrounded by nature. To me it's a daily adventure of incredible moments!”

Guiding Experience: Gaby has been a coordinator of family travel experiences for over 20 years.

Regional Knowledge & Expertise: Botswana, the Okavango Delta and the Makgadikgadi Salt Pans.

Ideal for Accompanying: Adventurous families and travellers, multi-generational family travel, small groups.

Areas of Special Interest: Wildlife, conservation, family safaris, family adventure and incredible nature-based holiday experiences.

Qualifications:

- Gaby has extensive world-wide travel experience.
- With a passion for family holidays and adventure.
- She is also known for her exceptional organizational skills and is extremely good at managing and hosting travel experiences.
- Gaby's expertise centers around creating incredible moments and memories (whatever the special occasion) from beginning to end.
- She is a bush function coordinator and over the years has helped create once-in-a-lifetime memories for her clients, in wild and wonderful places.

Languages: English, German

Currently Lives: Cape Town, South Africa

OPERATES IN BOTSWANA & NAMIBIA

A family safari is the ultimate bonding experience, bringing together relatives of all ages through shared experiences, and Gaby is a master of family travel.

With two children of her own, Gaby has plenty of tricks up her sleeve to keep everybody happy and is adept at keeping life running smoothly. Gaby hails from Garmisch Partenkirchen - a small town outside Munich in Germany. Fluent in both German and English, she completed school in Munich where she studied travel, before taking off to explore the world. She now lives in the Cape Town community of Hout Bay with her husband and children.

The majority of Gaby's career has been spent in the travel industry, with great experience in South African tourism, and she loves being immersed in the natural world and spending time with people. She has a wealth of knowledge about the Natural Selection camps. Gaby is fun, easy company and greatly loved by clients for her capable and kind demeanour.

Gaby is devoted to her own kin and has a passion for children and families – she thrives on transforming holidays into memorable adventures that stay with every family member for life. Gaby is adept at leading family groups through Botswana and Namibia and is sure to be a valuable member of your party as you journey through Africa.

